

Remark 1

“COOL WAVE” is a system to create new drawings through on new geometric figure, the system consist in a lot of varied combinations (all the combinations result of the contact between the parts to combine)possible successive or not, of a new geometric figure with its proper image in its original size or proportional sizes, thus resulting a great variety of innovative drawings. In this process is utilized like tools, a computer and specific computer program.

António Fernando Melo e Silva 01/02/2007

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of a stylized 'A' followed by a large loop and a vertical line.